THE ROY FAMILY

3+4-OK

PURPOSE

The purpose of this genealogy is to furnish a foundation for the building of a History of the Roy family before the older members have all passed on, and before valuable old records have become lost to our knowledge. It is hoped that some able and ambitious member of the family will receive from this data the inspiration to carry on. This book is intended to give in the simplest manner, as much personal data of our ancestors as it has been possible to get. There are two indices. The first gives only the Roy family, the second gives the names of all others mentioned in the book.

DIRECTIONS

Find your name in the Index.

From that find your name on the page referred to.

If you want ancestors, and your number appears on the margin of the page before your name, turn the pages backward until you find the same number indented at the left.

If you want descendants, and your number appears indented at the left of your name, turn the pages forward until you find the same number on the margin of the page.

Names having no numbers before them do not appear again.

Grateful acknowledgements are extended to the following people: Mrs. J. S. Williams, Mrs. Mallie Martin, Mrs. M. F. Jones, Mrs. M. E. Stapp, Miss Rose Roy, Edward L. Roy, Hugh W. Roy, Silas A. Roy, Mr. Paul Larkam, Mr. Cornelius Wesley, and others.

The name Roy in its present form is a very old one. In different languages it takes different forms such as LeRoy, Roye, O'Roy, Roys, Royse, Royce and Rowe, but Roy is the oldest and simplest. The name in this form is found as far back as the time of the Exodus of the children of Israel from Egypt, or about the Fourteenth Century, B. C. During the XIX dynasty of the Kings of Egypt (1320-1200 B. C.) particularly from the reigns of Rameses II on, the First Prophet of Amon was the highest and most powerful personage in the royal administration. The priesthood, to which the Prophets belonged, had become practically the political as well as the religious rulers of the country. We find in "The Nile and Egyptian Civilization," an interesting reference to our name. "Roy, who lived from the reign of Merneptah to that of Seti II (about 1224-1215 B. C.), tells us: 'The King granted that my children should be gathered together in a tribe of my blood, establishing them among the prophets who are under my direction. I am the First Prophet of Amon, and my son is established at my side as the Second Prophet . . . The son of my son will get the titles of the Fourth Prophet of Amon, Divine Father, Officiant and Priest.' "

In Scotch history the name of Rob Roy is well-known although originally his name was Rob Roy MacGregor. Some of the Roys of Scotland came from France as we learn from mention in "The Master Masons of Scotland." During the reign of James the Fifth, King of Scotland, he apponted one Nicholas Roy, a Frenchman, as Master Mason. Stirling Castle, built about 1539, is thought to have been one of the works of this man as it shows much of the French influence. In Europe the name and family are apparently of French origin although the name has the Celtic meaning of blonde or red.

Roy is not an uncommon name in Hindu history. In "Modern Tendencies in World Religions," while studying the changes in the religions of India, we find that one of the greatest reforms in that country was brought about early in the Nineteenth Century when the British government outlawed sati, or widow burning. This was largely due to the influence of Rajah Ramohan Roy who fought ceaselessly against this inhuman custom.

At present there are in America five distinct branches of the Roy family all spelling the name as above. The oldest is probably the French, who are also the most numerous. They settled in Canada and Louisiana, later spreading through the Mississippi Valley and to the westward. In Indiana history of 1749 we find the Fief of Vincennes passing to one Joseph Roy of an old and prominent family of the Province of Quebec. To this branch may also have belonged Hugh Roy, who immigrated to Westmoreland County, Virginia, in 1654, in a ship captained by a Frenchman.

Probably the next in age and number is the Scotch branch. As early as 1637 we find Peter Roy already settled in the Isle of Wight County, Virginia, and furnishing passage for Henry and Margaret Roy. While their nationality is uncertain, it seems that they were either Scotch or English. Dr. Mungo Roy of Culpepper County, Virginia, who immigrated early in the Eighteen Century was an outstanding Scotch immigrant, while Judge John Roy of New Jersey, also a prominent man of his time, was of Scotch and French Huguenot ancestry.

Little is known of the English branch other than of James Roy, our ancestor. Our knowledge of the Irish branch is limited to one Patrick Roy, a vestryman in St. Matthew's Church of Wheeling. The entrance of the Hindu branch is much more recent, students of that name having come to our Universities only during the past twenty-five or thirty years.

This book is concerned chiefly with the descendants of James Roy, but touches incidentally the descendants of John Roy who may have been his brother. Our family as recorded in this book begins with James Roy, who is first mentioned in St. George Parish, Spotsylvania County, Virginia, as witness to a deed dated October 27, 1725. About five years later he is named with one John Gordon as security for William Frazier, Administrator of the estate of David Mitchell. August 5, 1740, it is recorded that James Roy of St. George Parish, Spots. Co., Planter, sold to Thomas Edmondson of St. Anne's Parish, Essex County, 107 acres in St. George Parish, Spots. Co., for the sum of twenty-four pounds currency. This land had been purchased by James Roy from one George Proctor, but no date is given for this purchase. According to the records, Elizabeth, wife of James Roy, did not acknowledge her dower in this property until October 7, 1742. We know of no reason for this, but at that time as now, it was probably true that the deed was not a clear title until she relinquished her dower right. She may not have wished the property sold, or may have had other reasons for wishing to keep her dower right. John Waller, John Gordon, and others were witnesses.

James Roy died April 16, 1741, and his Will proved May 5, 1741, gives us the information that his son, Thomas Roy, is given all his land. His children were named as Elizabeth Gordon, now wife to John Gordon, Effie, Isabella, Mary, Sarah, and David. Edward Herndon, John Gordon, Elizabeth Gordon, and Major Francis Thornton were named as witnesses. October 6, 1741, Edmund Waller was appointed guardian to Isabella, with William Waller as security, and on the same date Richard Ship became Mary's guardian, with Thomas Ship and Edward Herndon as securities. A month later John Gordon, Junior, was appointed Sara's guardian, but it was not until July 5, 1743, that Isaac Darnell was appointed guardian for Effey, whose name in this instance was spelled Aphia. The amount of the guardian's bond in each case was one hundred and fifty pounds. July 4, 1749, John Gordon, Junior, was appointed guardian for Thomas Roy and bonded in the sum of four hundred pounds. It seems from other records that John Gordon's mother as well as his wife, was named Elizabeth, and sometimes this makes it impossible to tell whether it is the younger or older John who is named. It appears, however, that the husband of Elizabeth Roy must have been John, Junior. Incidentally the Gordons were Irish, either the father or grandfather of John, Junior, having come from the north of Ireland. In connection with this Will and the data following it, we must note how strange it seems that Elizabeth, the wife of James Roy, was not appointed as guardian for any of her children, and that apparently no guardian was ever appointed for David. Why a guardian was not appointed sooner for Thomas is a cause for conjecture also. Since guardians were appointed for these children, the conclusion is drawn that they were under twenty-one years of age, and that Thomas was still a minor in 1749 when his brother-in-law was appointed his guardian. Since he inherited his father's land, we believe that he was the elder son, but we do not know what became of his brother David.

We can find no marriage record, but February 18, 1761, Thomas Roy of St. George Parish and his wife, Margaret, sold to John Gordon, of the same Parish and County, 118 acres of land in St. George Parish. The witness to this deed, Ephraim Musick, furnished the clue by which we identify this Thomas Roy as being our ancestor. November 22, 1763, John Collins and Catherine, his wife, sold to Thomas Roy of Spots. Co. a tract of land in that County which deed was recorded April 1, 1765. It appears that Thomas sold this land March 16, 1767, for the records show that Thomas Roy and Margaret, his wife, sold to James Chiles, 100 acres in Spots. Co. for twelve pounds sterling, this being the same sum as that paid by Thomas to John Collins. This is the last record of Thomas Roy in the Court Records of Spots. Co. Unfortunately practically all of the marriage records of that county were destroyed, as well as the Census records of 1790.

It is necessary at this time to give data of the John Roy family in order to clear the records for future research and to establish the identity of each since often they are so closely connected as to be confusing. In Spotsylvania Court Records of July 8, 1722, we find the following instrument: "Robert Smith of the County of Essex, Planter, to Alexander Spotswood of Spotsylvania, Esquire, 320 pounds sterling, 'All those messuages, tennants, plantations, and land lying and being on both sides of the mouth of a large creek called Massaponnax, in Spotsylvania County, formerly Rappahannock County, imputed to be 2000 Acres of land,' on Rappahannock River. Wit: John Roy, Law, Battaile, Joseph Delaney, Mark Shepherd, Recorded September 3, 1723. 'At which time likewise Dorothy Roy's power of attorney to John Waller to impower him to acknowledge her right of dower of the above said deed,' etc."

November 1, 1725, Samuel Lloyd of St. George Parish, Spots. Co., Planter, sold to John Roy of St. Mary's Parish, Essex County, Planter, 121 acres of land in St. George Parish, Spots. Co., for twelve pounds currency. John seems to have been either somewhat migratory or a considerable land owner for we next have a record of John Roy of St. Mary's Parish, Caroline County, selling this 121 acres of land in Spots. Co. to one Robert Hutcherson of St. George Parish, Spots. Co., this 121 acres being part of a patent granted Larkin Chew, June 4, 1722, in St. George Parish, Spots. Co. Dorothy, wife of John Roy, acknowledged her dower. Our last record of John Roy is taken from Volume Twenty of the Va. Mag. which states that October 10, 1734, the Will of John Roy was proved by Dorothy and Thomas Roy, executors. This is a Caroline Co. record, and shows but seven years between the death of James and John Roy, and that each had a son, Thomas.

We shall now take up the data which we have of Thomas, the son of John Roy. This man was born about 1712 and married Judith Beverley Kenner, daughter of Harry Beverley, a prominent and wealthy Spots. planter. This marriage occurred prior to 1740, as we learn from Volume Twenty-two of the Va. Mag. that Thomas Roy and Judith, his wife, were defendants in a suit in Caroline Co. at that time. Thomas Roy settled Port Royal in Caroline Co. in 1744, and we hear no more of him in Spots. Co., but we do hear of his son, John Beverley Roy, who was probably just a few years younger than Thomas, the son of James Roy. John Bevereley Roy was a prominent man in Spots. Co. and is frequently mentioned in its Court Records. Thomas Roy, his father, died in 1772, and John Beverley lived only a short time longer. November 24, 1774, Ann Waler Roy (wife of John Beverley Roy), was appointed administratrix of his estate, and guardian to Ann, Judy, and Betty Roy, orphans of John Beverley Roy. On the same date John Lewis was bonded for 6000 pounds as guardian to Hugh Roy, orphan of John Beverley Roy. This would indicate that John Beverley Roy had been a wealthy man, and that he had only one son, Hugh Roy. Thomas Roy and Judith Beverley had three children, John Beverley, who was the oldest, Elizabeth, who married James Miller, and whose daughter Christian Miller married James Bankhead in 1777; and Captain Beverley Roy, whoe descendants have been sufficiently well traced to be certain that he is not our ancestor. Since Hugh Roy did not marry until 1788, and since he was the only son, John Beverley Roy is also eliminated as an ancestor.

In the ages of Thomas, son of John Roy and Thomas, son of James Roy, there may have been something like fifteen or twenty years, but Thomas, the son of James, if Bible records can be credited, lived to be 104 years old. As well as a Bible record, this is a family legend which I have often heard my father tell. To show that these families were closely associated, we but need to show they numbered the same men among their friends. September 7, 1742, Thomas Roy witnessed the deed when Thomas Ship and Elizabeth, his wife, sold 357 acres of land in St. George Parish, Spots. Co. This Thomas must have been the son of John Roy, as Thomas, the son of James, was still a minor. At that time Thomas Ship was one of the securities for the guardian of Mary, daughter of James Roy. And again May 1, 1765, Edmund Waller, who had been the guardian of Isabella Roy, made a deed to which John Beverley Roy was a witness.

The relationship of John and James Roy has not been established. Some of the descendants of John believe them to have been brothers. However, in an old Bible belonging to some of their descndants, there was a paper which stated that Thomas Roy was a descendant of Rob Roy McGregor. The author of this paper must have guessed at the lineal steps by which the line reached the MacGregor family for he failed to give the father or grandfather of Thomas Roy, simply jumping from Agnes McGregor to Thomas Roy, who settled Port Royal in 1744.

The family Bible of Thomas Roy II, whom we believe to be the grandson of James Roy, states that Thomas, his father, came from England. If, as we believe, Thomas, Sr., was the son of James, then this is incorrect, although no doubt James did come from England. No importation papers have yet been found. According to Elijah Hugh Roy, No. 71, two Roy brothers, Thomas and Leonard, came from England and settled in the Clinch Mountains where Thomas is supposed to have lived on one side of the mountains and raised corn, and general farm products while his brother lived on the other side and specialized in growing Irish potatoes.

It is quite possible that this was Thomas and David, whose place of birth may have been confused with that of their father and uncle. The records of these elder Roys ever having settld in Essex or Spots. Counties have been lost to their descendants in the obscurity of time, as seems to have been the case in the lineage of Thomas, son of John Roy, in his line from Rob Roy McGregor. The fact is that no data has yet been found to prove that the Roys ever lived in Western Virginia, although it seems quite likely that they may have stayed in the Clinch Mountains a few years after leaving Eastern Virginia before coming to Kentucky. The first record we have of the Roys in Kentucky is the marriage of Andrew Roy to Ginny Smith, October 9, 1802, in Pulaski County. Who he was or how he was connected with the known descendants of Thomas Roy is still a mystery, but since Pulaski County is the cradle of the Roy family in Kentucky, every Roy there is suspected of belonging to this family.

The children of James Roy in the order in which they are named in his Will are:

1. THOMAS
   ELIZABETH, wife to John Gordon
   EFFEY (Aphia)
   ISABELLA
   DAVID

1. Thomas evidently was not the oldest child, but doubtless was older than David. Thomas married Margaret (Mead) sometime between 1749 and 1760, and it is thought that he married twice. This is conjecture, but since we have no data of any children prior to 1771, this seems reasonable. Also it seems probable that the name of his second wife was Personet, and that he married her when he was about forty years old, if we consider him as becoming of age a few years after 1749 when John Gordon, Jr., was appointed his guardian. If he is the Thomas Roy mentioned in "Heitman's Historical Register of Officers of the Continental Army During the War of the Revolution," then he remained in Spots. Co. or thereabouts until about 1780. According to this Register, Thomas Roy, 2d. Lieutenant of Grayson's Additional Continental Regiment, enlisted February 15, 1777, and resigned December 1, 1777. In addition to the record in the Family Bible of Thomas Roy, Jr., which states that his father served in the Revolutionary War, there is a legend in the family which runs about as follows: Our ancestor was with the American Army in Virginia when, after a long march, it encamped near his home. He was anxious to see his family and asked his superior officer for a furlough to go home for the night. This was refused so he awaited his chance and slipped out. The next morning as he was returning for roll call he was halted just outside the lines and made prisoner. He was charged with desertion and sentenced to be shot when General Washington heard of the matter, learned that he was not deserting but just trying to get back to the army, and pardoned him. It is understood that there is always a Washington Roy in the family in gratitude for this pardon. Thomas Roy had at least eight chlidren.

2. LEONARD ROY, b. in Sept. probably 1771, m. Anna Musick in 1792. (She was b. May 22, 1774). The record of the Leonard Roy family was obtained from the Family Bible of James and Jane Musick, the parents of Anna Musick. This Bible is in the posession of Mrs. J. S. Williams of Faubush, Kentucky, and its leaves are so brittle with age that the outer edges of many of the pages on which these dates were recorded have broken off. This accounts for the lack of the year date in many instances. Here it seems logical to give a brief account of the Musick family.

Spotsylvania Court Records show that Oct. 3, 1732, George Musick of St. George Parish, Spots. Co., Planter, sold to Henry Elliott of Hanover Parish, King George Co., 500 acres in St. George Parish, Spots. Co., being land granted said Musick and Thomas Allan by patent, Sept. 28, 1828. Ann, wife of George Musick, acknowledged her dower. George Musick, senior, died in 1754, and his Will was proved March 5, 1754. His wife, Ann, and son, Electious, were named as executors. The legatees of the Will were as follows: Sons, Daniel, Ambrose, George, Abraham; dau., Elizabeth Trusty (Trustee), dau. Agnes Lynes (Lyons), land adjoining William Trusty. Son Electious, dau. Kezia Musick, wife Ann Musick, son Ephraim. From other records it would seem that George Musick was a man of means and that he and his family were respected people. The data of the Musick family as given in the Lewis Geneology by Mrs. Sarah Musick is especially interesting.

"Sarah, dau. of David Lewis, of Albemarle Co., Virginia, was born about 1724, in Hanover Co., Virginia. She m. Abraham Musick, son of George of Wales. George Musick was a foundling. He was picked up by some person in Wales who could not learn anything about his parents. He was so small that he did not know his name except 'George.' He proved to be a very smart boy and extremely fond of music, so they called him 'George Musick.' He emigrated to America and settled in Virginia during her Colonial days where he d. leaving five sons, viz: Daniel, George, Electious, Ephraim, and Abraham, who m. Sarah Lewis.

"Ephraim belonged to the Church of England until he was an old man, then joined the Baptist. He was a farmer and resided in Albemarle Co., Virginia. He left five sons and a daughter. His son's names were Abraham, John, Thomas, Roy (d.yg.), and Ephraim. His dau. married a man by the name of Jenkins.

"Sarah Lewis and her husband, Abraham Musick, emigrated from Virginia to South Carolina in 1766, and from there to Rutherford Co., North Carolina, in 1773, from there to Illinois in 1794, then to Missouri."

It appears from this data that Anna Musick, dau. of James and Jane, was a great-granddaughter of George Musick, senior. Which of his sons was her grandfather is not known, but obviously neither Ephraim nor Abraham were. It should be noted that Ephraim named one of his sons Roy. Where Anna Musick and Leonard Roy were married is unknown but they settled on what is called the old Wilson Farm near Faubush, Pulaski County, Kentucky. There Anna Musick Roy d. April 22, 1938, as the result of injuries received in fighting a forest fire which was threatening her home. Her death was followed by that of her husband Aug. 27, 1842. In this Family Bible which Anna received from her mother, who apparently made the entries of the births of her children therein, is a very interesting paper. It is thought that Jane Musick was Jane Right before her marirage, but this is not proved. This paper is the original oath of allegiance to the Colonies and reads as follows:

"I do hereby certify that Dennis Right hath taken and subscribed the oath or affirmation of allegience and fidelity, as directed by an Act of General Assembly intituled An Act to oblige the free male inhabitants of this state above a certain age to give assurance of allegience to the same, and for other purposes. Witness my hand and seal this 16th day of August, 1777. Wm. Mills (seal)."

Dennis Right is found as Dennis Wright when in 1782 he bought land of Francis Irvin in Spotsylvania County, Virginia. Leonard and Anna Musick Roy had issue:

The records of Pulaski Co. show that he was appointed one of the Trustees of the Fishing Creek Baptist Church, Mar. 28, 1829. He d. 32. LAWRENCE ROY, b. Aug. 29, 1812, m. Nancy Norvel, Jan. 14, 1836. Sept. 14, 1836, Leonard and Lawrence Roy bought of James and Elzira Short two parcels of land, one containing 50 acres on Cold Weather Creek adjoining Zach Roy's land. In 1842 we believe that Lawrence came with his brother Leonard to Missouri, for both settled near Camden Point in Platte County. There Lawrence lived until 1857 when he moved to within a few miles of Gower, in Clinton Co., Mo. Here "Culep" as he was known to his friends, lived the reminder of his life. He was an ingenious man, kindly of disposition; small of stature, with deep blue eyes and red-brown curly hair. An excellent shot, he enjoyed nothing more than to hunt and fish. He possessed a formula for the cure of surface cancer, a disease to which the fair, thin-skinned Roys have been susceptible since early times, and which still seems rather prevalent in some branches. He used with success this formula which seems to have been inherited by him, but from what ancestor is not known. This he left to his son Andrew, and dau. Serelda, who retain it but use it seldom. Lawrence

d. Jan. 1874 of diabetes, and was bur. at Plattsburg. Mo.

It is fitting here to give the lineage of Nancy Norvell Roy, for which we are indebted to Paul E. Larkam, of Roswell, New Mexico.

Prior Lineage for the Norvells

"I suppose everyone knows that people in the real old days had only one name each. Then came the time when the individual was known as John the son of John, the name of his father, or if that person was a great man he had something like "The Gentle" or "The Lion" added to his name. In reading history I expect you have noted this. We think our Norvell ancestors came over from France into England with William the Conqueror and the name was spelled Neuville, being later shortened to Nevill and Nevil. Today we find people in our Norvell branches spelling their names as Norell, Nawrell, Noval, Norville, Norvelle, Newell, Nevill, Neill, Noell, Noe', Nowell, Novall, and Neville. Even O'Neill is said to be a descendant of one of the many Norvell branches.

When the Norvells first came over to America between April 27, 1619, and November 2, 1621, none of them spelled their names as Norvell. It was long after when Scotch people took offices that they began to spell it as Norvell, or as Norvil.

We are very unfortunate to have these Norvells and their descendants living in counties where the records have been destroyed or lost in some way. So the first one we have found so far is James Norvell, who must have been born about 1720. He lived in Hanover and Goochland Counties, Virginia. His plantation was in Hanover County and was never sold during his life. On June 10, 1768, we find a record showing he was taxed in Goochland County for 3 sons (Spencer, George and Benjamin), 6 slaves, and 400 acres of land. We feel sure that James Norvell had these other chlidren who were either married or living in Hanover County at the time: James, Christian, Mackie, Thomas, Bettie, and Anna.

Our ancestor is Spencer Norvell and he must have been born before 1749. He was m. to Frances Hill, who we have reasons to believe is a descendant of the Peachy family, on Feb. 22, 1770, in St. James Northam Parish, Goochland County, Virginia. They soon sold their land and moved to Albemarle County and settled in the part that later was cut off into Amherst County, and here they lived out Spencer's life.

Spencer Norvell (Norvil) joined the Revolutionary War even before it began. It was on May 2, 1775, that he joined and he had to furnish his own horse. He marched with troops to Williamsburg to protest against the British having seized powder belonging to Virginia. Later when war was declared he rejoined with Captain Charles Lewis' Company. Then on April 21, 1779, we find he added his name to the signers of the Albemarle Declaration of Independence.

Spencer's wife must have died early in Amherst County, and it is thought that he never married again. They had the following children, according to his Will: Susannah, Thomas, Nathaniel, John P., Peachy, Frances, James, Ludiman, Spencer D., and Benjamin.

On June 26, 1829, Spencer made out his Will, and on September 29, 1829, it was probated in Amherst County, Va. His name is spelled Norvell on the Will while on the marriage record it was spelled Norvil. His Will shows that he loaned much to outsiders even if he had to sell some of his property to raise the money. In his Will he named the following slaves: Suckey, Letty, Patty, Sarah and Mary. To his son Nathaniel he left 'one other equal tenth part thereof, subject to a deduction of $375.67 heretofore advanced to him.'

Nathanial Norvell was born Mar. 7, 1772. He m.

Ann Carvin and moved to Pulaski Co., Ky., where their children were born. I have found John called "Jack," Nancy, Elizabeth, Carvin and Sally as his children. Of Ned and Spencer I can find no descendants or record but they are said to be his children also. There may be more which I have reason to believe.

Ann d. and was bur. in Platte Co., Mo., after which Nathaniel went to live with his son, Jack. He lived to be near 98 years and was bur. in a very much neglected Cem. called The Record Cem. near Oregon, Mo., Holt Co. He was remembered as a rather tall and large, raw-boned, light complected and a sort of a good-looking man.

Nancy Norvell, who was b. October 30, 1813, m. Lawrence Roy, and thus it is through her that the Norvell and Roy names are brought together.

As I am not a descendant of Nancy Norvell, I wish to record how I connect with the Norvell line:

33. LEONARD ROY, b. Dec. 20, 1814, in Pulaski Co., Ky., m. Frances (Frankey) Allen, Dec. 21, 1837. He lived on Fishing Creek, near where Armstrong Dick now lives, prior to moving to Mo. in the Spring of 1842. He went by boat to Weston, then inland to Settle Station, from there moving to Bee Creek, and later to Skinner's Bridge, a small settlement on Platte River. He worked in a flour mill there until the fall of 1855 when he moved to Gentry County, Mo. There he entered a homestead about four miles from Gentryville where he worked in the mill for many years. He and his wife were charter members of the Christian Church at Albany, and their home was a center of hospitality for the community. Leonard Roy was a man of kindly nature, described as having brown hair, light complexion and twinkling blue eyes. His death occurred July 14, 1883, with burial at Gribble Cem. near Darlington, Mo. The following sketch is from the "History of Worth and Gentry Counties":

"Leonard Roy was b. in Pulaski County, Ky., Dec. 20, 1814. His occupation during life has been miling and farming. His father, Zachariah Roy, was a native of Va. but was reared in Ky. By occupation he was a farmer. His mother's maiden name was Polly Vanhook of West Virginia. Leonard Roy was reared on a farm in his native county, his education being confined to the common schools. He is a member of the Masonic Order and has belonged to the Christian Church for more than fourteen years. He is the owner of 380 acres of good farming land in Gentry County and resides on Section 21. In the year 1842 he left Ky. and emigrated to Mo., landing at Weston, Platte Co., where he engaged in farming and milling until 1855. Then he came to Gentry Co. and settled on his present farm.

"December 21, 1837, he was married to Frances Allen of Pulaski Co., Ky. She was the dau. of Samuel Allen, a native of South Carolina, who was reared in Kentucky and was a farmer by occupation. Her mother was Nancy Speers of Pulaski County."

A brief lineage of the Allen family follows: Samuel Allin (Allen) was b. Dec. 30, 1756. He enlisted at Bedford Court House, Va., in Captain Davis Grissom's Company of Colonel Jefferson's Virginia Regiment in the spring of the year (year unknown) and served six months in the American Army. About 1780 he moved from Bedford Co. Va., to Orange Co., N. Car., where he served nine months under Captain Grissom, who also had moved there. He fought in the Battles of Guilford Court House and Eutaw Springs. August 27, 1782, he. m. Nancy Hester (Easter) in Orange County, N. Carolina.

Later he moved to Chester Co., S. Car., removing from there in 1803 to Pulaski Co., Ky. In 1805 he entered 78 acres of land on Cold Weather Creek and in 1815 entered 47 acres on Fishing Creek. Here Nancy Allen d. Feb. 13, 1829. In 1832 Samuel Allen applied for a pension and received $50 per annum from the government. His death occurred Dec. 11, 1841. Samuel and Nancy Allen and a grandson, Gilmore Allen, are bur. in the family plot on the banks of Fishing Creek about eight miles from Somerset, Ky. Several slaves are also bur. there. Thanks to the splendid care and unusual interest of Mr. Cornelius Wesley, the beauty and peace of these graves has been preservd for posterity. The children of Samuel and Nancy Allen were: David, Rial, John, Frankey, and Samuel, Jr.

Samuel Allen, Junior, was b. Sept. 15, 1799, in Chester Co., So. Carolina. December 15, 1818, he m. Nancy Spears in Pulaski Co., Ky. About 1849 he and his family went to Platte Co., Mo., leaving there for Oregon in 1854. Nancy Allen was an invalid before taking this journey and it was with much trepidation that Samuel began the long trek. In spite of the little space in his wagons, he took a coffin along fearing that his wife might die on the way. Fortunately she recovered her health and they settled at Irving, Lane Co., Ore., in the fall of 1854, where they spent the remainder of their lives. Nancy Spears Allen is remembered as a petite, red-haired woman. Her death occurred Aug. 28, 1870. Samuel Allen was six feet tall, with blue eyes and light complexion, and is remembered as a kindly old man known to everyone as "Uncle Sam." He d. Dec. 4, 1882, and is bur. by his wife in the Luper Cem. near Irving, Oregon. Nancy and Samuel Allen had four children: Frances (Frankey), b. Mar. 2, 1822; Mary, b. Feb. 16, 1824; Love, b. Apr.

35. STEPHEN BRENT ROY, b. Aug. 28, 1819, m. Frances, dau. of Iscon Love, Mar. 19, 1844. In 1842 he entered 50 acres of land on Cold Weather Creek, but moved later to near Mintonville, in Casey Co. He was a blacksmith, farmer and craftsman in wood, being well known as a maker of coffins of excellent workmanship. Very particular in his work, he turned out only the best and would have no less. He was a member of the Baptist Church, and a respected man in his community. A kindly man with a good word for everyone, he had hosts of friends. He d. 36. JOHN G. ROY, b. 1825, m. Margaret Ann Hines, Feb. 26, 1845. In 1846 he entered 30 acres of land on Cold Weather Creek. He moved to Mo. in 1854, and settled not far from Platte City where he lived until several years after the Civil War during which he was a strong Southern sympathizer. From there he went to Clinton County, returning a few years later to near Camden Point, in Platte Co. He was a shoemaker by trade and played the violin from natural ability. He was a kind hearted man but had a weakness for drink which he overcame in his later years. He d. Jan. 20, 1898, as the result of a fall from a wagon. Issue:

WILLIAM ZACHARIAH, b. 1846, d. Aug. 18, 1875.

Note: Here I wish to brand as false the article in "Annals of Platte County," which stated that he was drunk when killed. He had a heart attack and while unconscious on the railroad track was struck by a train, dying a few hours later. He was a kindly, temperate man.

37. ZACHARIAH ROY, Jr., was b. Dec. 2, 1829, about eight miles from Somerset, Ky. He was very fond of hunting and fishing and became such an excellent shot that when he was a boy of 18 years, he won a violin which came from Scotland for his fine marksmanship. Dec. 15, 1852, he m. Jerusiah Dick, dau. of William and Fanny Spears Dick, who d. Nov. 31, 1866. Sept. 22, 1853, he bought two parcels of land, one 50 acres and one 81 acres from his brother Leonard Roy, on Cold Weather Creek, and June 13, 1854, bought 80 acres on the same creek from his brother John, who evidently was preparing to leave for Missouri. He m. (2) Sarah Parton, May 5, 1867, and in 1882 moved to Mo., where he settled near Gentryville in Gentry Co. He was fond of music and played the violin from natural ability. He was a member of the Masonic Lodge and a good mixer. He d. of ulcer of the ear and throat, Dec. 30, 1894, and was bur. near Gentryville, Mo.

A brief sketch of the Dick family is appropriate here. According to the "Annals of Platte County," which unfortunately are often inaccurate, "John Dick came from Ireland to North Carolina, where he served as a soldier in the Rev. War. He m. Peggy Wylie in Ireland and moved from North Carolina to Pulaski Co., Ky. Their children were: James, Archibald, Sallie, John, Alexander, William, and Nancy, all of whom were born in Kentucky. William was b. in 1789, and m. Frances (Fanny) Spears, dau. of William and Mary Jasper Speers." In conflict with this data is the following from Portrait and Biographical Album of Jackson, Jefferson and Pottawattomie Counties, Kansas: "The paternal grandfather of our subject (John F. Dick) was John Dick, a native of Scotland, who emigrated to America in time to take a hand in the Rev. War. Afterward he followed farming pursuits in Kentucky, to which he had removed from South Carolina."

The opinion of older residents of Pulaski County seems to be that Mr. Dick was Scotch although he may have emigrated directly from Ireland. He m. Margaret, dau. of John Wiley, Mar. 1, 1778, in Chester County, South Carolina. Mrs. Dick was a sister of Mrs. Robin Adams, whose husband was a pioneer into Kentucky.
